		N	CENTRAL	P 77- 10319 INTELLIGENCE AGE EIGN ASSESSMENT	NCY A	EO 13526 3.5 EO MED	(c)
	SIGNIFIC	ANT DEVELO	OPMENTS REL (9 -	ATED TO THE US S 15 December 197	STAND ON HUMAN 1	RIGHTS NR
							1
							V & - 111
							•
							· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	This co	mpilation	is prepared	d weekly by the ies may be direc	Office of Regio	onal and
3.5(c)	This co Politic the Int	mpilation al Analysi ernational	is preparec s. Inquir Issucs Di	d weekly by the ies may be directivision,	Office of Regionated to	onal and of 3.5(c)

のできば、日本のでは

Approved for Release: 2018/09/17 C00201415

	Approved for Release: 2018/09/17 C00201415	***
•	3.5(c)
		NR
:
LATIN AM	JERICA 3.3(b)(1)
	Chilean President Pinochet is so incensed over US
:	co-sponsorship of a UN resolution condemning Chile for human rights violations that he has asked the Foreign Ministry to	• assess the consequences of a Chilean withdrawal from the UN	L
F	and its affiliated international organizations. The fact that Cuba was among the nations that joined the US in co-sponsoring	; 7
	the resolution caused particular consternation in Santiago.
	Foreign Ministry officials believe that it would be a serious mistake for Chile to withdraw from the UN, however, and they are trying to calm the President. The government, meanwhile, has not implemented plans reportedly made earlier this year to lift the state of siege on December 11. 3.3(b)(1) Argentine President Videla has taken steps to eliminate some of the excesses in the government's counter-subversion program. Several officers involved in kidnaping and extortion have been transferred, and the chief of the	• federal police has issued orders forbidding illegal detentions and directing that those arrested be turned over to the court	5 5.
	The orders specify that in no case are prisoners to "dis-
i i	appear." The effactiveness of such directives in bringing about improvements in the Argentine situation remains ques:	tionable. On December 8, some fifteen persons associated with	1
	the "mothers of the Plaza de Mayo" were taken into custody by persons describing themselves as security officers. The where	cbouts of those arrested remain unknown. Navy Commander Massera has told Ambassador Castro that the Army is probably responsible, but Army Chief of Staff Viola has implied that the Navy is to blame. Members of the mothers' group have been pressing the government to account for their missing relatives.
1 :
1
1 :	SECRET	•
	3.5(c)

. . . . .

Approved for Release: 2018/09/17 C00201415

